FURTHER INFORMATION:

The show is now in its 122nd year, having started in April 1903 when the 5th Baron Foley chaired a meeting at the Claygate Institute in Common Lane to “consider the advisability of holding a Flower Show and Industrial Exhibition in connection with the village” to match the flower shows in Esher and Oxshott. The new rail link to Waterloo had been constructed by this time and the potential of residential development in Claygate had been realised.

- Over 5,000 people attending
- Over 50 Classic Cars with the public and owners choosing their favourite. There is even a ‘Junior Choice’ and a ‘What’s it Worth’ competition
